Application for JSTS2020

Dear Sir or Madam,

We are pleased to inform you that Japan Seminar on Technology for Sustainability 2020 (JSTS2020) will be jointly hosted by the National Institute of Technology (KOSEN) and National United University (Taiwan). Also, it will be cosponsored by Nagaoka University of Technology and Toyohashi University of Technology. And we, as National Institute of Technology (KOSEN), Fukushima College, will take responsibility to organize the seminar.

The main objective of the seminar is to improve the students' global communication skills and the abilities required as a future global leaders in the diverse society through group workshops and various exchange activities based on SDGs17. The students will learn the basics of SDGs17 with JSTS2020, while they will apply the framework of SDGs17 learned at JSTS2020 to work on solving social problems.

In line with this, we are inviting students to participate JSTS2020. In principle, participants need to join both JSTS2020 and ISTS2020. If there are special reasons, such as health problems, family events, job-hunting related events, the participation will be considered. We would appreciate it if you could fill up the application form attached herewith and send back to us to the email address mentioned in the contact ISTS and JSTS Steering Committees by 24th, April, 2020.

*(Notes):

1. We expect approximately 20 participants from partner schools, accordingly in case of too many applications the selection will be made in GPA order.
2. We ask a participant to pay participation fee. The official participation fee and the payment method will be confirmed at a later date.
3. Please note, round trip air tickets is not included in the participation fee. You need to arrange by yourself. *Pick up at Narita or Haneda airport is 21th June 12:00 at noon.

We hope that many of the students will be able to join us.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Osamu Yamashita
President of the National Institute of Technology (KOSEN), Fukushima College
